

MAKING INFORMATION PAY 2008

TODD ANDERSON

Todd Anderson is the Director of the University of Alberta Bookstore where he has worked for the past 27 years. During that time he has held the positions of Marketing Manager, General Book Buyer, and Distribution Manager. Todd has spoken in Canada, the United States, and Australia about the future of the publishing industry. He was on the founding board of BookNet Canada and is a member of several customer advisory boards. Active in the Canadian bookselling and publishing community, Todd was President of the Canadian Booksellers Association for two years. The University of Alberta Bookstore has won the Canadian Booksellers Libris Award for Campus Store of the Year in 2000 and 2001, and the Canadian Publishers Council National College Store Award for 2001, 2004, and 2006.